ORDER SHORTENING TIME

This case comes before the court on an (ex parte) Application for Order Shortening Time filed by Uber Technologies, Inc.¹ The Application requests an expedited hearing and briefing schedule on Uber's not-yet-filed motion to modify² the court's December 21, 2021 scheduling order.³

By way of the Motion to Modify, Uber will seek modification of the Scheduling Order to permit live direct expert testimony,

² See Ex. A to the Application (the "Motion to Modify").

³ Dkt. 376 (the "Scheduling Order").

1 rather than providing for the introduction of such testimony via 2 declaration. The court finds and concludes that Uber has
3 advanced good cause in support of the Application, and ORDERS as 4 follows:

5 1. The Application is hereby GRANTED.

6 2. Uber shall file and serve the Motion to Modify no later
7 than January 3, 2022.

8 3. Opposition to the Motion to Modify must be filed and 9 served no later than 12:00 p.m. PST on January 7, 2022.

10 4. If opposition to the Motion to Modify is filed, any 11 reply must be filed and served no later than 12:00 p.m. PST on 12 January 10, 2022.

13 5. The Motion to Modify, as well as any opposition and
14 reply, must comply with B.L.R. 9013-1, other than that Uber need
15 not file or serve a notice of hearing. This order shall serve as 16 notice of the hearing on the Motion to Modify.

17 6. The court will convene a hearing on the Motion to 18 Modify on January 12, 2021 at 1:00 p.m. PST. This hearing will 19 convene via Zoom.

20 The court encourages all parties to consult the court's
21 website for information about court operations during the COVID-
22 19 pandemic. The court's website also offers information
23 explaining how to arrange an appearance at a video hearing. If 24 you have questions concerning court operations or how to 25 participate in a video hearing, you can contact the court by 26 calling 888-821-7606 or by using the Live Chat feature on the 27 court's website.
